Housing Authority Wins National Merit Award for Improving Services for Veterans.

Washington, D.C. (July 12, 2016) - The Albuquerque Housing Authority has been chosen as a recipient of the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO) Awards of Merit: Resident and Client Services for Improving Services for Veterans. The official presentation of the award will take place in Portland, Ore. on July 15 during NAHRO's Summer Conference.

"The NAHRO Awards of Merit Program was created to give national recognition to NAHRO Member organizations that have found innovative ways of making a difference in the communities and the lives of the people they serve" said, NAHRO President Steve Merritt.

Through successful partnerships, Albuquerque Housing Authority (AHA) has been able to increase the number of vouchers available in the Albuquerque area for the VASH program and significantly improve utilization of these vouchers. In addition, AHA has increased outreach to Veterans in the Albuquerque area.

"This program celebrates achievement and honors the work that our members do each and every day to ensure a safe and affordable place to call home. Showcasing the efforts of housing agencies and agency officials through NAHRO's Awards of Merit," said, NAHRO Acting CEO John Bohm.

"We hope that the general public, community leaders, private industry and government itself will become inspired to reform and enhance existing housing and community development programs and in addition create new ground-breaking programs and services to meet the housing needs our nation's most vulnerable citizens."

The 2016 NAHRO Awards of Merit recognize outstanding achievement in housing and community development programs in five categories. Administrative Innovation recognizes innovative methods in areas such as maintenance, community relations, and interagency cooperation. Program Innovation — Affordable Housing includes special programs for homeownership, public/private partnerships, and innovative financing. Program Innovation — Community Revitalization includes innovative use of programs in areas such as economic development, neighborhood preservation, and creative financing. Program Innovation — Resident and Client Services includes innovative use of programs such as special activities for children, families, and the elderly, anti-drug programs, social services, and self-sufficiency. Project Design includes efforts such as new housing design, housing modernization, enduring design, and landscape design.

The NAHRO Awards of Merit Program was created to give national recognition to NAHRO housing and community development member organizations that have found innovative ways of making a difference in the communities and the lives of the people they serve. Established in 1989, the NAHRO Award of Merit program has honored more than 6,000 programs.
