B.4 Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Goals. Provide a statement of the PHA’s goals, activities objectives, policies, or programs that will enable the PHA to serve the needs of child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

OVERVIEW

The Albuquerque Housing Authority (AHA) has several policies which address VAWA requirements and ensure that the AHA implements activities that serve the needs of child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. These policies and the activities that they promote are located in multiple sections of its FY2020 Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy (ACOP) and its Fy2020 Administrative Plan for the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program. A listing of the polices that contain information regarding child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking and where these policies are located is listed in the Tables below. The Albuquerque Housing Authority’s ACOP and Administrative Plan can be found online at www.abqha.org. Hard copies of these documents can be found at the following locations: AHA Main Office, 1840 University SE, Albuquerque, NM 87106, Embudo Towers, 8010 Constitution NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110, La Amistad Community Center (AHA), 415 fruit NE, Albuquerque, NM 87102.
